

Write the total number of valence electrons next to each molecule or ion below. Then draw the Lewis Dot Structure! Assume that all of the elements will follow the octet rule, except H, which will bond to get 2 valence electrons.

